

Service	Service description	Resources
User Service	Manage data from users and operate on top of them	user administration such as blocking users, user information, including administration permissions, update and retrieval
Authentication Service	Manage authentication tokens used to perform backend operations	login by generating a new token, logout by making other tokens unavailable and even user registration
News Service	General news and articles from pages with read content	Basic CRUD functionalities where only authorized users can create Create Update and Delete, and only authenticated can read
SuperMarket service	Data and information about supermarkets	Basic CRUD functionalities where only authorized users can create Create Update and Delete, and only authenticated can read
Product Service	Data and information about the categories of meat and the meats themselves	Basic CRUD functionalities where only authorized users can create Create Update and Delete, and only authenticated can read